In 1939, Oswald Greenway Knapp, of England, author of "A History of the Chief English Families Bearing the Name of Knapp" was asked to give us his latest conclusions concerning the English origin of our New England Knapp ancestors. He had this to say concerning Roger Knapp:

"It might be expected that Roger would be easily traced because of all the Christion names found among the English Knapps, his one of the rarest. Until lately I know of only one instance, which occurred in Herfordshire in 1675, which is much too late for our Roger Knapp, of Fairfield; Moreover Herfordshire is not a likely county to produce an emigrant and I regarded the problem insoluble. But recently I came across another Roger in Somerset, a much more likely locality, as there were a good many emigrants from from the neighborhood of Taunton. This Roger was from Curry Rivel, (about 9 miles from Taunton) and was apparently the eldest son of William and Alice Knapp, of Curry Rivel. He is named as executor and Residual Legatee in the will of his father, proved 1632/33 in the Court of the Archdeacon of Taunton; so he must have been of full age of that date. He married at West Hatch Feb25,1636/37, Joan Tachell.(His name in the Register being spelt as "Happ" Their son Amos Knap was baptised at Curry Rivel June 12,1642. There were no doubt other children who might be found if the Parish Register were searched, but this entrycomes from the Bishop's Transcripts, which are, as usual, incomplete. There is no record of him after 1642. His name appears indeed in the Hearth Tax Roll of 1664/65, but by that time he was either dead or had left the Parish, for the house, containing only one Hearth was then occupied by John Bowden. This looks as if he might well be the Roger of Fairfield, but if so, he must have lost his wife and married again, as the wife of the latter was Elizabeth.

There is no evidence to support the tradition that William and Nicholas were brothers, though it is very probable that they were kinsmen. The fact that they bore the same name and came in the same fleet would account for such a conjecture, and the conjecture, after being repeated a few times, would come to be accepted as a fact. Roger certainly belonged to quite a different stock, being sprung from that in which the surname first became hereditary in the first half of the Thirteenth century. Its earliest recorded member, Hugh de Cnappe, of Cnappe, (or le Knappe) now Knapp., in North Curry, was dead in 1644, his own son, Thomas Knappe or la Knappe, claimed to be the heir. I suspect that this was the source from which it sprang and found in the Fourteenth Century in Berks, Oxon and Wilts. Aaron again, belongs to a family which has no proved connection with any of the others, but it may very well be sprung, as I have suggested, from the same Somersetshire stock.

This is the state of the problem today. I make no claim to finality or certainty for my conclusions, but a lifelong experience in such investigations does tend to give one a certain flare for the lines along which a solution is most likely to be reached, even though it may be impossible to say with assurance what that solution may turn out to be."

(Name of sons found underlined means that he is carried forward in the next generation as the head of a family)

1. [illegible] Knapp, of New Haven and Fairfield, Conn. is ancestry is unknown.

2. Roger Knapp. Was first mentioned in New Haven, Conn., in 1643.

[illegible] in 1670. His will was made Feb.11,1672. Proved Sept.9,1673.

11. 1st."Goody Knapp" he died in the fall of 1653. Her name unknown.

m1. c.1649, Elizabeth Dickerson, dau.of Thomas Dickerson, of Fairfield, Conn. She m.2nd,____Wake and d. Dec.13,1705, Fairfield. Her step-father, Daniel Finch, gave a legacy to the wife of Roger Knapp in 1667 and also to Abigail, wife of Henry Jarble, and sister to Elizabeth. His first wife had:

2. Jonathan who was simple and left an estate of 35 pounds, 4 shillings and 6 pence. Inventory, Feb.1,1676, [illegible] His brother, Joseph was administrator. He was b.before 1653 and probably d.c.1676.

4. Lydia, b. before 1653. m.Jan.16,1666, Richard Mills, of Greenwich, Conn. son of Richard Mills. Had dau. Mary, who m. 1st Jonathan Knapp, s. of Thomas Sanford, of Norwalk, Conn.

By his second wife, b.ca 1657, dau.of Thomas & Mary Dickerson, he had

5. Roger, b.ca 1666. d.ca 1691. Will proved Sept.23,1691. Perhaps single, though the will of widow Wake, Nov.7,1691, mentions son-in-law Roger Knapp, but no children.

6. John, b.between 1675 and 1691. m.Sarah Hull.

7. Nathaniel, b.1670, Fairfield, Conn. d.1713, Stratford, Conn. Inventory May 1,1713, showing property at Stratford and Norwalk. He sold to Robert Tillman Feb.21,1706, his right to the long lot of his father, Roger Knapp, deceased, for two cows of male stock and one and one-half barrels of wheat. His estate included a tinker's anvil. He was one of 46 signers on a petition to the Court at Hartford, Conn. in 1690, for [illegible] ecclesiastical privileges. He m.at Stratford, May 14,1712. Name of wife unknown. No children.

8. Elizabeth, m.Charles Lane who sold to Robert Tillman, Feb.17,1737, his right in his brother-in-law's, John Knapp's long lot, given to him by his dtr., Elizabeth. Also "my share in coppnare of my mother-in-law, dec. of Stop Rock". They had Susanna, Charles, Alexander and Thomas.

9. Mary, b.ca 1673. d.bev. 3/25,1711. Will made Nov.17,1711. Prob Jan.3, 1712. Single. Mentioned sister Phoebe, wife of Samuel Hendrick, brother Nathaniel, "my bor,Nathaniel," Susanna, Thomas and Alexander Bunnell and aunt Castle. Says:"I acknowledge Nathaniel, son of said Samuel and Phoebe, to be my (the said Mary's) child."(To take the measure relating to her sister Phoebe's child, to mean that she had adopted him as her son and chief heir.) Nathaniel was/at Stratford as son of Samuel Hendrick and his birth is recorded later at Norton and calls him son of the same Samuel Hendrick. In1713, Benjamin Brinsmead was appointed administrator, succeeding her brother Nathaniel, who was deceased. He reported all debts paid except that due to Samuel Hendrick's son.

10. Phoebe, b.ca 1675, married or Mary Hendrick or Hendricks, of Stratford or Norton, Conn. had son Nathaniel who was adopted by her sister, Mary.

11. Sarah, b.after her father's will was made. Called Sarah, in her sister Mary's will.(Also said to be a dau.of widow Elizabeth Knapp by her former husband, _____.ms.

1. Roger Knapp probably had been in Milford in 1639. He relinquished rights to land in New Haven purchased from the Indians by the Colonists, Dec. 11,1639, signing by his mark. He took the oath of fidelity in 16__, "at which he was a poor man". He removed to Fairfield,Conn. about 16__.His debts were paid by Mr.Bell, as shown by his will in 1660. (One of four persons mentioned.) After removing to Fairfield he dealt extensively in land. Most of the land in Fairfield passed through his hands. At his death he was possessed of a good estate as shown by his will and inventory in Fairfield probate records. In this will he provided for his wife Elizabeth, gave to his son Jonathan 60 acres of his long lot, to his son Jonian, 50 acres of his long lot, to his dau. Lydia, 10 shillings. To his son Roger, his house and lot, pasture lot and other lands. To

John and Nathaniel, the remainder of the low lot, to [illegible] equally divided between them, to Elisabeth and Mary, 5 pounds each. The estate was valued at 170 pounds, 7 pence. At his death, the record states that "Mr.Sam'l Mahman hath purchased all the rights of Roger Knapp, deceased, in Fairfield", dated Feb.21,1673.

Elizabeth (Dickerson-Knapp) Jake made her will July 7,1691. Exhibited Nov. 9,1691 but not approved. It mentions Nathaniel, Roger, Sarah, Phoebe, Elisabeth, Charles and, brother Thomas Dickerson and Jonathan Morehouse.

In 1653, "Goody" Knapp, wife of Roger Knapp, recorded as"a kindly and honorable woman", was executed as a witch. The trial took place in the autumn before a jury and several "Goody" Ingalls and lasted several days. There were many witnesses, but the indictment and substance of the greater part of their testimony is missing. Against the accused was the evidence of Mrs.Lucy Hall and "Goody" Odell, the midwife, who, by direction of the Court, had examined the person of the prisoner and testified to finding upon it, certain "Teats" which had departed as proof positive of "witchcraft". The jury brought in a verdict of guilty and she was sentenced to death. After the sentence she was visited by numbers of the townspeople who urged her to confess herself a witch and betray her accomplices on the ground that it would be for the benefit of her soul. And while there might have been some reason for her silence before the trial, since confession then might have prejudiced her case, there could be none now for the reason that she must die, in any event. Upon one of these occasions, the minister and a number of townspeople being present, the poor woman replied that she must not [illegible] upon her own opinions,but that if she had anything to say, she would reveal it to Mr.Hallow, the magistrate, at the window. The procession to the place of execution was composed of no less than, Gilbertson, old and young persons, all the population of Fairfield. She had no confession to make, but whispered a telling thing to Mr.Hallow [illegible] according one incident of no account. Then she bowed herself and went on the turn beside the curve, and [illegible] her friends looked upon

Revolutionary soldiers of Redding, Conn. gives no soldiers named Knapp, but does give the following Loyalists: Andrew Knapp, David Knapp and Jonathan Knapp who fled to Long Island in 1776, all members of the Loyalist Association, of Redding. Moses Knapp was not a resident of Redding then. The Town of Redding voted Feb.5,1781, not to rebate assessments against David Knapp because he had a son-in-law,or a son, who went over to the enemy. This David, thought to be a son of Moses. In 1782, David Knapp was in New York, a Loyalist associator, enrolled for assessment at Shelborne, Nova Scotia, ~~the following~~, with a family of two persons. At peace, he went from New York to Shelborne, where the Crown granted him 50
